To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to recommend Donna Rivas, whom I had the opportunity to teach in Elementary French E1b during the Spring 2025 at Harvard Extension School. From the very beginning of the course, she distinguished herself as a motivated, engaged, and reliable student—qualities that I believe will make her an excellent addition to your team.

In my class, she consistently demonstrated a strong work ethic and a genuine enthusiasm for learning. She approached each assignment thoughtfully, actively participated in discussions, and regularly sought feedback to improve her skills. Her ability to communicate clearly, collaborate effectively with classmates, and maintain a positive and professional attitude was evident throughout the semester.

What sets her apart is her dedication to personal growth and her natural interpersonal skills. She is self-assured and attentive - traits that are especially valuable in the business and marketing industry sector, where client interaction, discretion, and professionalism are essential. She is also culturally curious and open-minded, showing a real interest in languages and international contexts, which I believe will serve her well in a global-facing role.

I am confident that Donna Rivas will bring enthusiasm and a strong sense of responsibility to any professional setting. She contributed positively to our classroom environment, and I have no doubt that she will bring the same energy and commitment to her work with your company.

Please feel free to contact me if you need any additional information.

Sincerely,
