Dear General Manager:

Miss Donna Rivas has been my student and advisee for about a year. Miss Rivas's performance in the managerial Finance (FRL 3000) course has been good. I find her to be a good student with strong abilities and academic aptitude. She has the initiative and motivation that exceeds most requirements.

Miss Rivas is often a leader in class discussions, and her comments are insightful and well-thought-out. Donna has shown great enthusiasm and willingness to learn new concepts in the field of finance. Even though her primary academic focus is marketing, she continuously seeks to explore the use of financial tools in marketing management.

Miss Rivas has proved to be diligent, conscientious, and very personable. Donna's sales experience as a Fine Jewelry Sales Professional at JCPenney, alongisde her roles at Chevrolet is evidence of her dedication and work ethic. Donna's ability to manage projects, handle responsibility, and dedicate time and energy to the assignments at hand distinguishes her from other young candidates. She will add diversity and will be a valuable asset to your operation.

Taking into consideration her dedication, determination, and motivation, I have no reservations concerning her success in the field of marketing and sales. I believe that Miss Donna Rivas will be a successful member of your team. I hope you will seriously consider her employment application. If I can be of further assistance, please do not hesitate to contact me by mail, by telephone at (909) 869-2405, or by e-mail at psarmas@cpp.edu.

Respectfully,

Paul Sarmas
